NEWS BY THE MAILS.

From Washington.

THE SOUTHERN CONGRESSMEN.

There is no truth in the report that the Southern members elect held a caucus a few days ago and resolved to go home and remain there until after the 4th of March next. Most of those Southern Congressmen have gone home to spend the holidays, and intend returning in January to prosecute their claims for seats in Congress.—From the tone of the leading men in both Houses just before the adjournment, there is reason to believe that the Tennessee Senators and Representatives will be admitted to seats before the 1st of February, and there is good reason to believe that most of the Representatives of the other Southern States will be admitted within a very short time. The opinion is gaining ground that the credentials of the claimants for seats from the Southern States should be referred to the Committee on Elections and there disposed of without the incumbrance and weight of the loads of reconstruction resolutions offered, and stump speaking boiled down yet to be presented by members of Congress.—Correspondence N. Y. Times.

THE POLITICAL COMPLEXION of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction, commonly called the Thad. Stevens Committee, is just now undergoing considerable discussion.—Although the antecedents of a majority of its members are well known, it seems to be somewhat difficult to determine how far they will array themselves against the wise and patriotic policy of the President and attempt to assail his manifestly impregnable position. There is no doubt that Stevens, Washburne, Morrill, Bingham and Boatwell, on the part of the House, and Fessenden, Grimes and Howard on the part of the Senate, will pull together, without counting Roscoe Conkling of the House, and Harris of the Senate. The Destructionists have a majority of one on the Committee. It is possible that the firmness of the President, supported as he is by a large majority of the people, may cause a change for the better, ere the lapse of many weeks. At present, however, there seems to be little ground for hope, Stevens, Sumner & Co., will hold on to the last.

THE INTENTION TO WITHDRAW FRENCH TROOPS.

The correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger reaffirms the statement that the French will be withdrawn from Mexico. Says the writer:

"I now repeat—that the Emperor of the French will not withdraw his troops until positive information is received from the Government that it will neither interfere nor permit of interference on the part of its citizens in the affairs of that country. This is in reality the position of the government now; but what the Emperor wants is an assurance that this position will not be changed."

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

The Executive has pledged his word that this Bureau shall be abolished in every State as soon as they exhibit a sincere willingness to protect the freedmen.

SECRETARY STANTON'S REPORT.

Secretary Stanton, in his reply to a resolution of the Senate requesting him to report whether any person was employed by the War Department who has not taken the oath prescribed by act of Congress, says: "None have been employed except those who were appointed Provisional Governors of States recently, who have received compensation for services to the United States Government, out of the contingent fund of the war debt, at the same rate allowed to A. Johnson, Military Governor of Tennessee, under appointment March 23d, 1862, viz: at the rate of $10,000 per annum, to wit: W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina, $1750. B. F. Perry, Provisional Governor of South Carolina, $750. Lewis E. Parson Provisional Governor of Alabama, $1000. James Johnson, Provisional Governor of Georgia, $1000. And in reply to enquiry, whether any persons was filling office not authorized by law, says, that in August last, an office was organized in the Adjutant General's Bureau, for collection, safekeeping and preservation of Confederate archives, and Dr. Francis Liber was appointed chief of that Bureau. The reason of this appointment was, the necessity of having archives collected by a publicist of known character and reputation, in order that they might be available to good, without delay. He received the sum of $241,784, out of Provost funds in charge of Adjutant General.

The Riot in Alexandria.

WASHINGTON, December 27.—The reports which reached her last evening of a riot at Alexandria between the whites and negroes, in which five to six on each side were killed, were greatly exaggerated. It now appears to have been a free fight, both sides being to blame, and both consequently punished.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED PERSONS CONFIRMED.—The rite of confirmation was, on Wednesday, conferred upon some fifteen hundred persons in the Catholic Church of St. Mary's, by Archbishop McCloskey, assisted by Rev Mr. McNierney secretary, Archdeacon McCarron, Rev. Fathers McKenna and St. John. The church was densely crowded, the ground floor being reserved for those about to be confirmed. At 11 o'clock, the hour on the number of some six hundred; and in the afternoon at two, eight hundred girls received the Sacrament of Confirmation, the Archbishop briefly addressing the congregation at both services.—New York Express.

NEW GOODS.

New Line Opened!—Makes Two Trips to the Old Line's One!

A. CREECH HAS JUST RETURNED FROM the North, where he has bought his second supply of

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

Embracing the various New Styles of the Season, together with Ladies Cloaks, Long Shawls, Breakfast Shawls, Ladies and Misses' Goods, Ladies and Misses' Hoop Skirts, Ladies and Misses' Balmoral Shoes, Gent's Boots and Shoes, Boys, Youths and Children's Boots and Shoes, Felt Hats, the Derby the Dasher, the Planter's wide brim and other styles for Men's wear. Boys, Youths and Children's Hats. Wood and Willow Ware, Crockery and Glass Ware, and a superior lot of Family Groceries.

Take my stock altogether, I have one among the largest and most desirable and complete stocks of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods in the City.

Now allow me to say that I bought my Goods to sell, and they must and shall be sold; but I don't expect to take a piece of poetry in one hand and a full grown humbug in the other and climb up to the clouds and fish out the birds of Paradise and gently bring them down with a placard stuck on their backs, "Selling out at Cost! selling out at cost!" No, I deal in no such humbug. I keep no such a class of Goods. I keep no time worn shelf-rubbed, defaced or dusty Goods—dust so thick you can rub it off with a knife. My Goods are all new, and of good styles, and I intend to sell them as low as anybody that bought goods with the expectation of paying for them, and the man that sold the goods to the man that don't intend to pay for them is a fool—and the man that sells them is a rascal. Now this is plain talk, but 'tis no slip of the tongue. I mean what I say, and say what I mean. I have lived here and sold goods here for twenty years. I expect to remain here. I pay my taxes to support Institutions of the City, County and the State. I expect to continue to do so. I respectfully ask my old customers, my old friends and new ones to call and examine my stock. I will deal with you honest and treat you right. If I don't sell you goods as cheap as you can buy the same class of goods elsewhere I don't expect you to buy. Call at the R. Smith building, house formerly occupied by Creech & Litchford, Merchants and Auctioneers.

A. CREECH.

COPARTNERSHIP.

NEWBERN, N C, November 1st, 1865.

WE HAVE THIS DAY FORMED A COPARTnership under the name and style of

Whitford, Dill & Co.,

for the transaction of a Shipping and General Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.

To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and Slaves and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.

We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

☞ We will make liberal advances on consignments.

All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered.

LOUISBURG
FEMALE COLLEGE.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January 1866.

Louisburg is in Franklin County, N C., about nine miles from Franklinton Station, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

Between these points there is a daily stage line connecting with trains going North and South.

The community in which the College is located, is noted for health social refinement, intelligence and christian morality.

Boarding pupils will be treated as members of the President's family and their physical welfare, both in health and sickness, will receive strict attention.

The course of study requisite for graduation, will be extensive; grade of scholarship high; instruction, thorough and systematic. Parents are requested to instruct their daughters, not to pursue more than one or two extra studies in connection with the College course.

Pupils will have access to a good Library, and enjoy the benefit of Lectures with apparatus for illustrating the experimental sciences.

Government of the girls will be mild and parental, but firm and decided.

Strict attention will be paid the moral and religious culture.

No uniform will be required for the present. Extravagance in dress will not be encouraged. Pupils will not be permitted to contract debts.

Books and stationery will be furnished at the College.

Charges will be the same as those adopted in Greensboro Female College before the war, viz:

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month	1 00
" two months	2 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.—Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

The Weekly Sentinel.

The Weekly Sentinel will be issued about the 9th of January. Our friends will please send in their orders for it at once.

The semi-weekly we design issuing as soon as our list will justify it. In the mean time those who order the semi-weekly will be supplied with the Daily or Weekly as they prefer, until the semi-weekly is issued.

To Our Friends.

The time of many of our subscribers will expire on the 1st of January next. Many of these have not paid us up yet. We need the money much, but the great scarcity of money and the uncertainty of the mails lead us to change our purpose to begin the cash system promptly on the 1st of January, and to rely upon the promptness and fidelity of our patrons to pay us soon as possible. All therefore who wish to change the Daily to the Weekly or Semi-Weekly or who wish to continue the Daily will please inform us by the 8th of January at farthest.

Those who do not pay up or let us hear from them by the 8th of January, will be stricken from our list, and their bills will be forwarded soon after.

Those who desire the Daily, Semi Weekly or Weekly will please order them at once. If not convenient or safe to send the cash, it can be sent us by the members to the Legislature on the 1st Monday in February. In the meantime we shall be obliged to those who owe us for advertising or the paper to send us the cash.

Governor's Council.

The Council has been called to meet on next Wednesday, the 3rd of January. The notice is short, but the necessity is urgent for an early meeting.

Hon. Z. B. Vance.

We are glad to learn that through the kind offices of Hon. J. M. Harris of Baltimore and of Mr. Speaker Colfax, President Johnson has recently enlarged the parole of Gov. Vance, which allows him the liberty of the entire State. We understand it is the purpose of Gov. Vance to make the town of Wilmington his future home, and that he expects soon to commence the practice of law in that place. This will gratify his numerous friends, whose sympathies have been much enlisted, on account of his inability heretofore to pursue any business by which he could provide for his family. We learn the Gov. will stop at Raleigh next week on his way to Wilmington, to see his old friends. They will be glad to shake his hand and welcome him.

Secretary of State.

Doubts having arisen whether the Provisional Secretary of State could validly issue grants of lands, the opinion of the Attorney General was solicited, who considered that he had full authority for so doing. The civil government having since succeeded, all doubt is therefore removed, and all applicants will be promptly attended to. Mr. Best, the Secretary of State, has thoroughly arranged his office, and he will be found to be a prompt and obliging officer.

The President and the Radicals.

The majority which the radicals have in Congress, seems to excite less uneasiness than was at first manifested, as to their success in defeating the policy of the President. It is now evident that the contest although it will be kept up for awhile with vigor on their part, they must finally yield to the growing strength of the President among the people and the increasing anxiety which begins to be felt at the North, for an early settlement of all matters pertaining to the war.

The determination on the part of the radicals to hold on to the offices of the country for their own benefit, is becoming manifest, but the purpose of the President to carry out his plan of reconstruction, is daily decreasing the ranks of the radicals, and strengthening more and more the real Union party now rapidly forming under the lead of the President.

Every true Union man therefore in the South must see the necessity of strengthening the President's hands, by such demonstrations of fidelity to the government, as will remove all grounds of suspicion and shut the mouths of carpers and complainers against the South.

Most of the leading presses of the North and many leading men heretofore classed with the radicals, are now outspoken in support of the President. Every day adds to his strength, and but a few weeks must elapse before the lines will be so strongly drawn, that the radicals will be forced to yield their ultra claims or fall before the strength of those measures which the President has determined to carry out in effecting the full restoration of the South.

RICHMOND MEDICAL JOURNAL.—We have on our table the first No. of this publication for January 1866. It is neatly printed and its contents must be specially interesting to the profession, the character of its editors will insure it good success.

The True Union Men.

We find this phrase much on the lips of a class of persons, who are exceedingly anxious to establish the reputation for themselves, that they have been sincerely Union men at heart, though their acts, speeches and writings for many years went to prove that they were as bitter towards the Union and the North, indeed far more so, than many of those who conscientiously sustained the Southern cause to the last moments. With such persons, a true Union man can only be found in the South, who affiliates with a certain clique or faction, who abuses all honest Southern men and every one who opposes their narrow, partizan schemes, and who gives "aid and comfort" to the radicals of the North.

Now, it is evident, that the definition of Union or loyal men, as understood and practiced upon by President Johnson, is a very different one from the one adopted by this class. If we are to judge of his opinions by his acts, he determines a man's loyalty, not by his former opinions or acts, but by what he understands him to be now. All of his Provisional Governors were according to the nomenclature of these people, "rebels," "traitors," until he pardoned them, but after their pardon he esteems them as loyal men and commits to them important trusts.

The simple act of pardon while in law it absolves the party, does not necessarily make him such a man as every one could trust. Confidence in the integrity of the man is necessary. Yet this does not answer with the class of persons of whom we are speaking. The integrity and deportment of a gentleman for a life-time does not answer with them, unless his acts and votes and talk is of a particular stripe. Hence it is, that with singular impertinence these people continue to denounce many of the most reliable and trustworthy people in the State, whether pardoned or not, as "rebels" and "traitors."

Death of Rev. W. N. Hawks.

We find it stated in the papers, that Rev. W. N. Hawks, late rector of the Episcopal Church of Columbus, Ga., recently died in that city.—He was a native of Newbern in this State and the brother of Dr. F. L. Hawks of New York and Bishop Hawks of Missouri. We have known him intimately for many years, and can bear testimony to his worth as a man and a minister. He was an earnest working man, firm in his friendships, and devoted to the cause of his Master. We learn he was much beloved in his late parish and died lamented.

Thomas I. Faison, Esq., of Sampson.

We are pained to learn that T. I. Faison, Esq., of Sampson, died suddenly at his home on Friday last. He had returned home from the Legislature only a few days in good health, when he was stricken down. Mr. F. was one of the most popular men in Sampson. He was a member of the State Convention of 1835 and also of the present Convention, and had also represented the County of Sampson in both Houses of the Legislature for many years. At the time of his death he was a member of the Convention and the Senator from that County. He is represented as a kind hearted, charitable man and will be much lamented.

EXCITEMENT.—Quite a sensation was produced on our streets on yesterday by the return of Mr. Thos H. Coates, a gentleman who has been known in this community for several years, as an accomplished architect and master builder. Mr. C. is an Englishman and his children had been left in New York with friends just before the war. Remaining South for several years carrying on his business, he became anxious to see his children, and after making several ineffectual efforts to leave the South by consent of the authorities, he at length determined to run the blockade by way of Georgia and Tennessee. He was a man of means and got on very well until he fell in with the bummers in the west, who stripped him. The secret manner of his leaving here and the failure of his friends to hear from him, led to the suspicion that he had been murdered. This impression became general. Nothing was heard from him until his return on yesterday morning. We learn he has been through the rubbers since he left, and gives an interesting account of his peregrinations, but he returns right side up.

FURNITURE.—See Messrs. Baker, Cowper & Co.'s advertisement of an auction sale of fine furniture on Monday next.

I. G. Lash, Esq. of Salem has been appointed Collector of the Internal Revenue Tax in the 2d collective District of this State. No better appointment could have been made.

SUFFRAGE.—The appeals of the radicals for the suffrage of the Southern blacks, have stirred the Northern women, who claim the privilege of voting, for the 15,000,000 women of this nation. There are some things for which women are vastly better fitted than men, and we should oppose any proposition which would give to the men the right to invade their sphere or to presume to interfere with their rights. But the affairs of the nation have been badly enough managed, and we have had quarrelling and fighting enough, when managed by two or three millions of men. But to add to these 15,000,000 of women in the management of national affairs, and then 4,000,000 negroes, we imagine every thing would go up the spout in short order.

We learn that all the Bridges across Nuese River in Johnston County have been swept away by the freshet.

The Anticipated Negro Troubles in North Catolina.

WILMINGTON, Dec. 26.—The negroes made no organized demonstration in this vicinity yesterday. A few isolated cases of collision between the whites and blacks occurred early on Christmas morning. Some negroes creating a disturbance were arrested by the police, when a crowd of negroes rallied and rescued their companions.

Detachments of regular troops from the garrison came to the assistance of the police. About one hundred negroes were arrested, but their cases have not yet been disposed of. There were no other disturbances of consequence.

Balmoral.

The Richmond Examiner hits off the Balmoral skirt, after the following fashion. We do not know whether its strictures are just or not, not being given to the vulgar habit of some bipeds of the human species, who stand upon the streets to watch ladies feet and the structure of their skirts:

"Balmoral" cannot be of more consequence, as a show than the dress; or else why not wear the "Balmoral" on the outside, so as to give to the world all its beauties at a glance. No! fashion is the only cause, the only reason, the only excuse, and in this instance fashion is no sufficient justification.

We must recur to this subject again and show why Southern ladies should not generally adopt the maxim of their Northern exemplars, and who hold that:

"Honour and shame from no rich dresses rise;
Look well your robes, there all the honour lies!"

We will take occasion to add that we abhor the practice; we think it vulgar and unbecoming; it robs the lady's carriage of that peculiar grace given by the drapery of her dress; and we trust no sensible Southern lady will adopt it. Let not the Southern woman discard the modesty of her dress for a glaring vulgar fashion.

Resolutions Endorsing the President.

Mr. Voorhees, of Indiana [Dem.) submitted the following:

Resolved, That the Message of the President of the United States, delivered at the opening of the present Congress, is regarded by this body as an able, judicious and patriotic State paper.

Resolved, That the principles therein advocated for the restoration of the Union, are the safest and most practicable that can now be applied to our disordered domestic affairs.

Resolved, That no State or number of States confederated together can in any manner sunder their connection with the Federal Union, except by a total subversion of our present system of government, and that the President, in enunciating this doctrine in his late message, has but given expression to the sentiments of all those who deny the right or power of a State to secede.

Resolved, That the President is entitled to the thanks of Congress and the country, for his faithful, wise and successful efforts to restore civil government, law and order to the State whose citizens were lately in insurrection against the Federal authority; and we hereby pledge ourselves to aid, assist and uphold him in the policy which he has adopted to give harmony, peace and union to the country.

Mr. Voorhees moved, and the House agreed to the motion, to postpone the consideration of the resolutions until the 9th of January.

MORALITY OF CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS.—In all the cases we have known to come before the committing magistrate of the parish, since the surrender of the Confederate armies, we have not heard of a single soldier of those armies being arraigned for anything that would disgrace a gentleman. Occasionally one may be brought up for some slight indiscretion, but even that is very rare. This fact upsets all pre-conceived ideas in regard to the effect of camp life upon men, or, at least, the Southern army has proved a remarkable exception to the hypothesis that military life is injurious to individual morals. We know several instances, ourselves, of young men, who, when then entered the army, were inclined much to dissipation and reckless behavior have returned models of sobriety, industry, and economy; and so universal has been the good conduct of returned soldiers, that, in his charge to the Grand Jury, Monday, Judge Abel considered it his duty to compliment that class of population upon their orderly and exemplary behavior.—New Orleans Crescent.

Southern History.

It is generally understood that Gen Lee, and probably other late Confederate officers, are preparing sketches of the operations under their several commands, which will, in due time, be given to the public. Meanwhile we caution our readers against accepting as history, or as probable fact, the conjectures of publications as may anticipate the authentic records to which we have referred as forthcoming. Among these conjectures, is one now going the rounds of the press, but which we are satisfied is entirely erroneous, to the effect that Gen. Lee, in evacuating the lines before Richmond and Petersburg, had pre-determined the surrender of his army.—We are very sure that this supposition, though given as an inference from facts supposed to justify it, is not their true interpretation, and that there could be no greater mistake.—Richmond Sentinel.

Admiral Semmes.

Secretary Welles has ordered that the Confederate Captain Semmes be tried by Court martial for violating the laws of war in a number of instances, and more especially when he hoisted the white flag on the Alabama and then refused to surrender himself, and engaged in war again without being exchanged. Semmes claims the protection of the parole granted by Gen. Sherman to the forces under Johnston, one of whom was this said Semmes.

Terrible Occurrence.

CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—A terrible case of suffocation from gas occurred at the Bremen Hotel, on Saturday night, resulting in the death of five men and perhaps six. The victims all slept in the same room, and it is supposed that after retiring, the cap of the gas pipe, which was merely stuck on with wax, fell off, allowing the gas, under full pressure, to enter the room. Five of the men were found dead yesterday morning.—Another was still alive last night, but insensible.

Mississippi State Government.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The President has, through the Secretary of State, relieved Judge Sharkey of the trust of Provisional Governor of Mississippi, and recognized his duly elected successor in the person of Gov. Humphreys. The letters addressed to them are similar to those written to the Provisional Governors of the other Southern States, remitting to the constituted authorities chosen by the people the care and conduct of their proper affairs.

Texas and Florida are the only two remaining States to be relieved of their Provisional Governors.

MR. STEVENS' POSITION.—Throughout the whole of the late war, when the rebels had entire possession of from seven to ten States, the Government and people of the United States maintained that those States were still in the Union; now that the war is over and the rebels have been conquered, and their bogus governments have been displaced, and we have possession, it is proposed to consider those States out of the Union. This is an absurd position, and yet it is the one that Mr. Stevens desires to put the country in.—Philadelphia Ledger.

RELICS OF THE MEXICAN WAR.—Perhaps it may not be generally known that the two brass cannon over the main entrance to the War Department were taken from over the door of the reception room of the royal palace in the city of Mexico, when that city was entered by Gen. Scott. The same palatial residence is now occupied by the Emperor Maximilian.

Capt. Semmes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.

Capt. Semmes is expected to arrive here to-night, from New York. He will be confined in the Navy Yard.

We are indebted to the polite attentions of Mr. O'Brien, of the telegraph office for the following on yesterday:

Morehead City reports state, that the steamer Constitution from Savannah to New York had been wrecked off our coast, lost all on board (54) except fourteen of the crew.

President's Message in Europe.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.

The London Times says of the President's message, that that part concerning England ought to be received in a friendly spirit. The Telegraph says, the document reflects the highest credit on its author, and furnishes the world satisfactory auguries of peace.

Mexican Affairs.

The constitutional term of President Juarez expired by limitation on the 13th of November last. Among the republican statesmen of Mexico there seemed to be some doubt as to whether he should continue in his office until another election could be held agreeable to the constitution and the exigencies of the country, or whether he should relinquish the presidency into the hands of General Ortega, the Vice President.—All true Mexicans were, however, unanimous in the first opinion. Gen. Ortega deemed it his duty to be at the capital of the republic at the expiration of the constitutional term, with a view to assume the charge of public affairs, should President Juarez deem it proper to relinquish them.

As rumors, growing out of these circumstances, prejudicial to the Liberal cause, have been circulated, friends of Mexico in this city deny that President Juarez and General Ortega have quarrelled, and say that the latter will submit graciously to the determination of the former and continue as hitherto to uphold, in the field and cabinet, the integrity of the republic.

A TRIO OF WIDOWS.—Three remarkable widows are living in New York. The first is Mrs. John J. Crittenden, tall, handsome and stately, in splendid health, and always magnificently dressed. The second is Mrs. Daniel Webster, not so well preserved, nor so young, but still a noticeable lady. The last is Mrs. Major General Phillip Kearney, a magnificent woman in respect to appearance, with much natural beauty, and a good deal that is artificial. Gen. Kearney, it will be remembered, left two widows—each of whom was designated in his will as wife. Both were amply provided for in his will. The first was Miss Dianna Cuthbert Bullitt, of Louisville, Ky., and the last Miss Maxwell, of New York.

We understand that there is soon to take place in New Orleans an impressive Masonic ceremony—the holding of what is called by the fraternity a "Lodge of Sorrow"—the occasion being the commemoration of the members of "the mystic tie" who have died during the war. Upon this interesting occasion, Albert Pike, who is the Grand Commander of the Supreme Council of the Southern section of the United States, is to take the leading part, and is to be assisted by other Masons of high rank.

The propositions before Congress to equalize bounties to soldiers and sailors will be strenuously opposed, as it will take $75.000,000 to pay the bounties. The issue of land warrants instead of money will be urged.

Three cars of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail road, up train, were thrown from the track Thursday morning about one mile from Weldon, seriously injuring the foot of the baggage master.

A suit has been entered in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia to restrain the city government of Washington from paying the expenses of the recent election upon the negro suffrage question.

A delegation from the Shawnee Indian tribe has arrived in Washington, to ask their "Great Father" for some Christmas presents, and that he will use his influence to have their present reservation exchanged for one farther South.

The various contested seat cases in Congress will be taken up soon after the reassembling of that body. The case of Mr. Harris of Maryland, will also come up for decision, and it is thought he will be allowed to retain his seat.

The Louisville Journal says that Jefferson Davis cannot be convicted of treason by any jury that can be made up in the nation, and adds that the consequences of an attempt to convict him would be evil, all evil, and only evil.

FAYETTEVILLE N. C. MILITARY ACADEMY.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION have been resumed without the military feature, and an additional number of pupils will be received for the balance of the session, which will terminate 26 weeks from the 1st of January, 1866. The discipline and course of instruction will be the same as in similar schools, with the exception of a thorough course in the Ancient Languages, embracing Latin and Greek composition. In surveying and engineering the instruction will be both theoretical and practical. Arrangements will be made at an early day to secure a complete set of Chemical and Philosophical apparatus. No pains or expense will be spared to make this one of the best Schools in the country. The buildings are located on Haymount which overlooks the town of Fayetteville, and which is remarkable for the healthiness of the location, the beauty of the scenery, and the intelligence, refinement and high moral character of the people. There is almost daily conception between Wilmington and Fayetteville by steamboat, and this is suggested as the best route to the latter place from almost any quarter. Students will be received at any time, and will be charged from the date of entrance, though it will be best to enter about the 1st of January, 1866.

Terms for 26 weeks from 1st of January, 1866, payable in advance:

Tuition,	$ 30 00
Board and lodging,	150 00
Washing, fuel and lights,	20 00

Applications for admission must be addressed to
